OUR PROGRESS.

A Profitable and a Prosperous Year in Arigona.

Phenix Gazette This week just closed has been a busy one, and a lively one in Phenix. The Ter-ritorial Fair brought many visitors to the capital during last week, and as they represent all the walks of life, incident to Arizona, a splendid opportunity was afforded to acquire information in regard to the progress that goes to make up and sus-tain a body politic. Every one with whom we conversed seemed highly pleased, in regard to the present progress, and future outlook, of our fair commonwealth. Very favorable circumstances have combined to make this a profitable, and a prosperous year, for all the mountain country, and Arizona in particular. The great industries which are the foundation of our business life, mining, stock raising and agriculture have been most favorably dealt with during the past year; hence our unwonted prosperity. With these, on solid basis and upward tendency, which now charac-terizes them, Arizona's future is assured The great activity in mining matters in the mountains lately, has added greatly to the population of the mountain camps, and has created an increased demand there for the generous offerings to the

That mining has taken an onward and upward stride during the present season, is evidenced by the great activity in all the camps of the territory, as well as the eagerness displayed, for the acquirement of Arizona mining property, by investors at home and abroad. Last Wednesday an Indian had an accident on the railroad by which he lost a foot. The switch engine had been across the river for a car and the boy got on for a ride. He jumped off after the engine had got over the bridge, and that was where he made his mistake. His jump was made on the west side of the track where the space between the hill and the track is very narrow. The boy must have missed his calculations very badly, for he struck the steep track and immediately rolled on the track, the wheels of the power within its ranks, its ablest organi

The plaintiff is Daly's wife, who alleges, as in the suit for divorce, that she is the wife of Daly, etc. In addition to the charges made against the plaintiff in the divorce suit she states that the defendant Mehan connived with Daly and secured a deed to the property with the intent to defraud the plaintiff out of her just and equitable right to her interest. She further prays the court for an order of sale of the property and her share of the proceeds and a division of the balance over and above her share be tween Mehan and Dewitt Turner to whom the former deeded half interest.
